

Services

- Written translation in Polish/English and English/Polish language, for organisations and individuals.

We provide a first class, low cost translation, highly experienced, professional and offer an effective, and efficient service.

We continuously work to strengthen our reputation for a quality and value for money service.

We put our customers at the heart of what we do. We invest in improved technology to improve our efficiency and offer ongoing training and support to improve effectiveness.

Our principles

All our translators adhere to code of ethics and to the following principles.

Confidentiality

Translators will adhere to data protection regulations to store notes safely on computer or paper to ensure confidentiality according to GDPR The Data Protection Act 2018 All private information and notes are deleted after receiving payment and satisfaction from the client.

Word-for-word accuracy

The dialogue or text will be translated word for word. Nothing will be added and nothing will be taken away.

Impartiality

The translator will give impartial, unbiased and utmost attention to the service provided.